This Week's Tip for Lent

Resist Acting Boastful or Seeking Attention

The Bible warns individuals who are fasting against acting in a way that seeks other people's attention. This concept may seem strange at first. Why would someone want to boast about their fasting? It may be surprising, but looking for attention can be a major temptation for many people when fasting.

Jesus talks about how we should fast in Matthew 6:16-18. He explains that people who want the world's attention will wear a gloomy countenance and neglect their appearance. People will see their inflated turmoil and ask what's wrong. Then the person can say that they're fasting and gain attention and accolades from others.

Jesus wants believers to be humble and meek while they fast. In verse 17, He says you should maintain a good outward appearance while you fast. That way, the experience is between you and God instead of you and onlookers. After all, God is the one who will bless you for fasting with the right intentions. Fast for the approval of God rather than the approval of other people.

And remember, God isn't impressed by what we give up, He is impressed by how it changes us into being more fully that "ambassador for Christ."

Thank You

Thank you for all the cards, gifts, well-wishes and the surprise party, on the occasion of my 80th birthday. It was all great!

Deacon Bob

Elementary CCD Lenten Project

Our Elementary students will be collecting money this Lent for the people of Appalachia. Maybe come up with some ways they can "earn" the money they wish to donate to this Lenten project. More information will be sent home with the students next week.

Weekly Reconciliation Times

Weekly times for the Sacrament of Reconciliation are:

Thursdays at 6:45 p.m.

Saturdays at 8:30 a.m.

Virtue of the Week is Industriousness

This virtue means to diligently complete a task, setting small goals along the way. Saints who practiced industriousness were St. Bede, St. John Neuman and St. Cyril and St. Methodius. Our prayer for this week is, "Heavenly Father, You have given me the gift of this day, the gift of this moment. Help me to use my time well. Give me the grace to do all for Your greater glory."

Engaged Couples Conference

Sunday, March 19, 2023, starting at 8:30 a.m. This will include Sunday Mass. Email stmichaelskalida@gmail.com or call 419-532-3474 to sign-up.

Group Photos for the Parish Pictorial

If you volunteer at St. Michael's, please mark your calendars for Sunday, March 19, when we will be taking group pictures in church. Watch for a schedule in an upcoming bulletin.
